Potts model with a defect line

Sébastien Ott[1] and Yvan Velenik[*1]

[1]Section de Mathématiques, Université de Genève – 2-4 rue du Lièvre, 1211 Genève 4, Suisse

Résumé

We analyze in detail the effect of a line of modified coupling constants on the correlation length of the Potts model on $\mathbb{Z}^d$ ($d > 1$) above the critical temperature. By duality, this also provides an analysis of interface pinning in the two-dimensional Potts model below the critical temperature.

---

[*]Intervenant